RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 22nd September 1964

No. 1-4/64-BP.I.—The Government of India have had under consideration for sometime the question of bringing about improvement in the system of distribution of Government foodgrains. They have now decided to constitute a Study Team consisting of the following:—

1. Professor V. M. Dandekar, Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Poona.—Leader.
2. Dr. B. P. Dutta, Deputy Economic and Statistical Adviser, Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Ministry of Food and Agriculture, New Delhi.—Member.
3. Dr. S. C. Gupta, Deputy Director, Agro-Economic Research Centre, Delhi University, Delhi.—Member.

2. The Team will review the working of fair price shops for foodgrains, the pricing of the grains sold through these shops and examine the general impact of the sale of foodgrains through fair price shops on the foodgrains market. The Team will submit its report with its recommendations within a period of three months from the date it starts its work. The Team will have powers to co-opt such additional member/members from the Agro-Economic Research Centres of the Ministry of Food and Agriculture, from the State Governments and/or from the foodgrains trade, as they think necessary for their work.

ORDER

Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to all concerned and that it may be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

A. L. DIAS, Secy.
